

Press Release

Electric December: The Sky I Wished 19 December

On day 19 see the full splendor of Iceland's Northern Lights in a short film produced by artists Kathryn Thomas and Simon Whetham. The Sky I Wished features a series of stills of Kathryn's paintings and is accompanied by a hypnotic score composed by sound artist Simon Whetham.

The paintings were inspired by Kathryn and Simon's recent visit to Iceland, fulfilling a lifetime wish of seeing the spectacular Northern Lights, and offer glimpses of natural beauty, illustrating the magnificence and limitlessness of space and beyond.

Electric December is Watershed's widely acclaimed online digital advent calendar, which offers a new and totally unique digital present every day from 1 Dec - counting you down to Christmas.

Notes to editors

- For further information on Kathryn Thomas and Simon Whetham works please visit <http://www.kathryn-thomas.co.uk> / <http://www.simonwhetham.co.uk> or <http://www.adarklight.co.uk>
- Electric December is an example of the work contributing to Bristol's bid to The Digital Challenge, which offers a £7m prize to develop a showcase zone for eGovernment and ICT innovation - find out more at <http://www.egovmonitor.com/node/1716>
- Find out more about Electric December, and download images and press releases at <http://www.electricdecember.org/06/press>
- Electric December is a Watershed project supported by Bristol City Council and Bristol Evening Post.
- You can see the last seven years of Electric December now at www.electricdecember.org
- For further press information contact Taranjit Bahra or Anja Dalton on 0117 927 6444 or taranjit@watershed.co.uk / Anja.Dalton@watershed.co.uk